Within the context of the Canadian criminal justice system, education is an important approach to crime prevention at the juvenile level. Education is also an important approach to rehabilitation for adults, and comprehensive schools are therefore operated in most federal penitentiaries.

Dans le contexte du régime de justice pénale, l'éducation constitue, pour les jeunes, un important moyen de prévention du crime. Elle est également, pour les adultes, un important moyen de réadaptation sociale. C'est donc pourquoi la plupart des pénitenciers fédéraux comptent des installations scolaires polyvalentes.

The Canadian Studies Program supports the development of Canadian Studies learning tools and materials, in print, audio-visual or new-media format, for use by educators and by the general public. By providing funding assistance, via an Annual Funding Competition and an Annual Call for Proposals, for the research and development of eligible projects intended to promote Canada, the Program's goal is, ultimately, to foster a greater sense of Canadian identity and attachment to our country. The Program also provides some publications free of charge to school and teachers.

Le Programme des études canadiennes appuie la production d'outils d'apprentissage et de matériel didactique de format imprimé, audio-visuel ou néomédiatique, à l'intention des éducateurs et du grand public. En contribuant financièrement, via le Concours annuel de financement et l'Appel annuel des propositions, à la recherche et à l'élaboration de projets admissibles destinés à faire connaître le Canada, le Programme vise ultimement à renforcer l'identité canadienne et l'attachement pour notre pays. De plus, le Programme fournit gratuitement certaines publications aux écoles et aux enseignants.

The Chief Electoral Officer has a mandate to inform the electorate about their democratic rights and how to exercise them at an election or referendum. He therefore mounts a voter education program between elections targeted primarily at first-time voters (youth and new citizens). The program comprises free distribution of simulation election kits to help educators teach the electoral system; a circulating exhibition on the history of elections in Canada, accompanied by an audio-visual presentation and a program of election simulations conducted by the Community Relations Officer; participation of the latter in various teachers' conferences at which workshops are given and resource materials are displayed and distributed.

Le directeur général des élections a le mandat d'informer l'électorat par rapport à leurs droits démocratiques et à la façon de les exercer lors d'une élection ou d'un referendum. À cet effet, il a instauré un programme éducatif entre les élections particulièrement à l'intention des personnes qui voteront pour la première fois (les jeunes et les nouveaux citoyens). Le programme comprend la distribution gratuite de trousses d'élections simulées pour aider les éducateurs à enseigner le système électoral; une exposition itinérante sur l'histoire des élections au Canada, accompagnée d'une présentation audio-visuelle et d'un programme d'élections simulées animées par l'agente des relations communautaires; la participation de cette dernière à diverses conférences d'éducateurs où l'on organise des ateliers de formation, démontre et distribue du matériel de ressource.
